UNCLE SAM IN THE FIGHT

When Freedom grappled with the Hun, Who sought to murder or enslave her, She found she needed help to win And called on Uncle Sam to save her. He may have been too proud to fight When Bryan was his chief adviser, But now he's taken off his coat And says, "I'll kill that doggone Kaiser."

Ten million registered to fight And ninety more to arm and feed them; Our veterans are on the firing lines And Sims and Pershing there to lead them. Von Hindenburg has called it "bluff," While Wilhelm says, "Gott will preserve us;" The Turk is sure of Allah's aid; Make no mistake, they're feeling nervous.

DRAFTED MEN

Cannot Enlist After Names Are Posted—Ruling Likely To Cause Jump For Army—Local Board To Be In Old Standard Bank Building.

Local Board in Old Standard Bank Building

Headquarters for the local board to have charge of the selective conscription of men for army service under the military registration of June 5 will be established in the old Standard Bank Building.

Much additional data for the information of the members of the board on its duties was received today, and it is expected that the board will be ready on receipt of the official list of serial numbers to take up its work.

Washington, July 13—Registrants under the selective draft law are not eligible for voluntary enlistment in the regular army or the national guard after their names have been posted by local exemption boards as summoned for examination.

Brigadier General Crowder, provost marshal general, promulgated this ruling today to make definite the status of men on the registration lists who now may desire to join the regulars or the national guard. The ruling is supplementary to instructions sent to recruiting officers by Adjutant General McCain.

The ruling by General Crowder was necessary in order to establish definitely the time when a registered man was to be considered as falling within this prohibition.

Official Tullies About Complete

Checking the official tally sheets of the draft was about complete today and printing the master sheets which will guide local exemption boards in summoning the men for the first increment of 687,000 troops proceeded rapidly. The sheets probably will start out in the mails late today.

Regulations to govern the application of the master lists by the local exemption boards have already been promulgated and include a method by which any difficulties arising from confusion of serial numbers are to be overcome. The plan is to regard such registration cards as additional to the number already provided and the local lists.

Separate Drawing By State Officials

A separate drawing will be held by State authorities to place these additional cards and such other cards as may have come in by mail since July 10 in order as they are drawn. They will then be appended to the registration list of their district and immediately affected by the selection drawing of last Friday just as though they had been included in the list at that time.

Officials of Provost Marshal General Crowder's office were preparing today for the great number of inquiries and requests for rulings which they expect from the local boards as soon as examinations of the men for the first quotas begin. Probably it will take several days for the boards to become thoroughly familiar with their work. After that, officials expect the examinations and exemptions of men or their certification to the higher board for military duty will proceed rapidly.

Within a week after the local boards begin operations, the district boards also will be able to begin their work and take up questions of industrial exemptions as rapidly as they arise.

ANNOUNCEMENT CONCERNING REGISTRATION NUMBERS

Beginning tomorrow and continuing for the next three days the Ledger will run in installments the numbers and names of those who were called in the draft last Friday. We would like to run the entire list at one time but can not do so for lack of space. Save the paper each day and when the three installments have been run you will have the complete list.

RUSSIAN PREMIER

Told To Fight Enemies of Order To a Finish—"Strong Man Entrusted With Task of Restoring Order."

Petrograd, July 23—At a joint sitting of the Executive committees of the Council of Workmen's and Soldiers' Delegates and the Council of Peasants' Delegates, there was passed, 252 to 57, a sweeping resolution granting to the provisional government under Premier Kerensky "unlimited powers" to grapple with the sinister forces that have threatened to wreck the new Russia.

The chaotic conditions prevailing on part of the Russian front are disclosed in a telegram sent to Premier Kerensky, the provisional government and the Council of Workmen's and Soldiers' Delegates and Peasants by the Executive committee and the commissioner of the provisional government with the Second army, on the southwestern front. The telegram announced the inauguration of stern measures to combat disaffection. The message reads:

"We unanimously recognize that the situation demands extreme measures and efforts, for everything must be risked to save the revolution from catastrophe. The commander-in-chief on the western front and the commander of the second army today have given orders to fire on deserters and runaways."

"Let the country know the truth. Let it act without mercy. Let it find enough courage to strangle those who, by their cowardice, are destroying Russia and the revolution."

Referring to the threatened disaster, the telegram says:

"Most military units are in a state of complete disorganization. Their spirit for the offensive has utterly disappeared. They no longer listen to orders of their leaders and they neglect all exhortations of comrades, even replying by threats and shots. Some elements voluntarily evacuate positions without even waiting for the approach of the enemy. Cases are on record in which an order given to proceed with all haste to such and such a spot to assist comrades in distress has been discussed for several hours at meetings and reinforcements consequently have been delayed several hours. These troops abandon their positions at the first shots of the enemy. For a distance of several hundred versts long files of deserters armed and unarmed, men in good health and robust, who have lost all shame and feel they can act altogether with impunity, are proceeding to the rear. Frequently entire units desert in this manner."

Rear Admiral Verdevski, commander of the Baltic fleet, has been arrested for communicating a secret government telegram to sailors' committees.

RUGGLES CAMPGROUNDS

Begin Next Thursday—Bishop Anderson to Preach Sunday—Many From Here Will Attend.

Many from this section are making preparations to go, and quite a few have already gone to Ruggles Campgrounds to enjoy a vacation for the next two weeks. Campmeeting begins next Thursday and by that time all the tents on the grounds will be filled. Yearly there are more calls for cottages than can be furnished and the hotel is filled to overflowing. It is thought that before long the Campmeeting Board will erect more cottages so as to accommodate larger numbers.

Next Sunday everyone will have the privilege of hearing Bishop William H. Anderson of Cincinnati, who will fill the pulpit at both the morning and evening services. Rev. T. Howard Jones, pastor of the Ashland M. E. Church, is on the program to preach the second Sunday, but owing to the fact that he recently underwent a surgical operation, it is not known whether or not he will be able to come.

Miss Mary Wilson of this city will have charge of the young people's work which is a guarantee that those meetings will be of much benefit to the young folks.

With good weather this should be a banner year at this famous old campground. As usual the Ledger will have an interesting news letter every day concerning the happenings on the grounds.

WAR WILL HAVE ITS WAY

We have a lot to learn in this war. The control of the news which people read is merely a start in the program of winning the war. It will become necessary to control labor, to apportion raw materials, to distribute products and to prevent waste. All these things the government will do in the course of time.

In Great Britain all these things have been done. Fortunately, over there the will of Parliament is supreme, there is no constitution to hinder the effect of what the lawmakers have the courage to pass. In America the case is different, our constitution will come between the government and its successful, efficient prosecution of the war. There can be little doubt but that all the things enumerated above will be done, but they have to be done without the shadow of legality and in the shade of violating our revered constitution.

The government of America is not framed for the fighting of a modern war. The states have power, which they use differently, and pass widely divergent laws upon the same subject. It will become necessary before the war is won to supplant much of the power of the state by the authority of the federal government in order to secure uniformity. The point is not whether we like it, or whether we wish it or not, the government must establish its control over every phase of industrial life in order to wage war efficiently, and at present, efficient war-making is the sole idea behind our government and its officers.

The drafting of a million men for the army will more than disrupt the ranks of labor. Substitutes for men must be found. There are only two sources from which to expect aid, machinery and women. Already there is talk of female street car conductors, elevator "boys," street cleaners, and agricultural workers. The thing will come to pass. Women will learn to work and their work will ease the strain which will be felt when hundreds of thousands of working men are taken into the line of battle.

The use of machinery will also help replace the men who go forth. Longer hours for the laborers will make four men do the previous work of five. The hard-earned victories of the laboring classes will be "suspended," for the duration of the war, although there is a commendable tendency on the part of officials to do what they can to prevent this. The country will have to reshape its entire industrial life. The present mode is passing away, and no one has the intelligence to perceive what the future will produce.

The free American which has existed up to this time is in a state of coma. Our freedom has been chloroformed, as it were, in order to make the world safe for democracy, by removing from its surface, the cancerous growth of militarism. Whether the subject, suffering America, will regain its normal consciousness after the operation has been performed, is a question which the doctors can answer, but one to which the relatives, the people, have no clue.

WHY UNFAIRLY BURDEN THE PRESS?

No class of American business men has been harder hit by war conditions than the publishers of newspapers. Their increased expenses for white paper, for labor, for news collection and other "overhead charges" have not been compensated by increased receipts from circulation or advertising. The newspaper pays with other enterprises its income taxes, its corporation taxes, its realty taxes. It seeks no exemptions from common burdens incident to a time of war. But when it is singled out for special taxation, those engaged in it feel that they have a right to protest.

Why should the Senate finance committee, going over the war revenue bill, single out the industry that enlightens the American people for taxation burdens beyond those imposed on manufacturers in general? The proposed special tax of five per cent. on newspaper profits and the proposed raise of twenty-five per cent. in postal charges on second-class mail matter look like unfair impositions to the members of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association, and they feel that the public as well as themselves is concerned, for the reason that the newspapers are on the whole a very important benefit to the public, and give more freely than any other industry without receiving direct returns. Their voluntary assistance has enabled the government to sell its war bonds and to procure recruits for the army and the navy and has been influential in the campaign to secure contributions for the Red Cross. Where would the food conservation movement be without the uncompensated help which it has received from the newspapers? Let it be remembered that the proposed tax on newspaper profits is not restricted to excess profits so-called, but applies to all profits derived from newspapers, no matter how small they may be considered with relation to the capital invested.—Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin.

SENATE BILL RESULT IN STUDY

The raging Mr. Rainey will subside in due season. The House will accept the Senate revenue bill with little or no modification. And the reason is that the country approves of the Senate's bill far more than it does of the one which the House prepared. This does not mean that the bill is perfect or that it is unanimously popular. No tax bill was ever drawn that could meet these tests. But, when all is said and done, the fact remains that the Senate bill represents study and thought and care, while the House bill represented none of these elements.

The best thought of republicans is needed by the country as is the best thought of democrats. A new committee carefully composed of the best equipped senators and representatives which would devote itself to war questions coming before congress, working harmoniously and directly with the administration, could simplify the processes of imperative legislation very much.—Pittsburg Gazette-Times.

An exchange comments upon the profound silence maintained by Secretary Tumulty ever since the "leak" scandal, when Tumulty denied a close acquaintance with Barney Baruch, the Wall Street bear who made a fortune out of the break in stocks. Perhaps Tumulty got publicity enough at that time to last him a long, long time.

There is one department of the government at least that can be depended upon and that is the Weather Department. It has got so regular in its habits that it can only hand out one kind of a report.

SECOND OFFICERS TRAINING CAMP PLANS REVISED

Washington, July 22.—A complete revision in the plans for the location of the second officers training camps to open August 27 has been decided upon by the War Department as a result of a reinspection of the sites previously chosen.

Under the new arrangement there will be nine camps instead of eight. Fort McPherson, Ga., Fort Logan Root, Ark., and Fort Riley, Kas., being dropped from the list and Plattburg barracks, N. Y., Fort Niagara, N. Y., Fort Snelling, Minn., and Fort Sheridan, Ill., being added. The Fort Meyer, Va., Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind., Presidio, San Francisco and Leon Springs, Tex., designations remain unchanged but a reassignment of state personnel among the various camps has been ordered.

Some of the locations originally ordered are objectionable for various reasons, said a report on the subject transmitted to Secretary Baker and Adjutant General McCain, "Fort McPherson is already overcrowded and has poor facilities for training camp work. Fort Logan Root is decidedly unsuitable and will be rendered more so in view of the large cantonment to be constructed at that place. Fort Riley, Kas., is objectionable because of the scattering of the buildings devoted to the training camp; furthermore, it is to become a large cantonment.

The elimination of these three points as desirable training camp locations necessitates a change in the original plan. The plan recommended above is better suited to existing structures. "No new construction is required. Men in training camps will be much less crowded than at present. The more northern points may experience unfavorable weather in November, but this is more than offset by the more favorable conditions that will exist during August, September and October.

The assignment of state quotas under the new plan includes: At Fort Benjamin Harrison—West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky.

SENATE PASSES LEVER BILL TO CONTROL FOODS

Washington, July 21.—The administration food control bill, virtually rewritten after five weeks' bitter contest, was passed today by the Senate, 81 to 6. Conference from House and Senate will begin work early next week and leaders are hopeful the measure may be in the President's hands in ten days.

As re-vamped the bill give the President broad authority over foods, feeds and fuels, the latter including kerosene and gasoline; provides for administration by a food board of three members instead of an individual; authorizes federal fixing of coal prices, regulation and operation of mines, and authorizes a minimum guaranteed price of not less than $2 per bushel for wheat at primary markets.

The Senate prohibition section, prohibiting manufacture of distilled beverages during the war and directing the President to buy all distilled spirits in bond, was substituted for the House "bone dry" provision and will be one subject of difficulty in conference.

ALFONSO A SPORT

(Cedar Rapids Gazette)

King Alfonso says that if Spain should declare a republic he would be a candidate for president. He believes, apparently, that the trouble is with the system, not with himself. Seemingly he feels that he is a citizen of Spain and that, even under the American declaration that men are born equal, he is entitled to seek preferment at the hands of other citizens. There are not many European rulers who would care to emulate Alfonso. More than half of them would be barred by the result of a civil service examination. A few would be

CONSTIPATION

And Sour Stomach Caused This Lady Much Suffering. Black-Draught Relieved.

Meadersville, Ky.—Mrs. Pearl Patrick, of this place, writes: "I was very constipated. I had sour stomach and was so uncomfortable. I went to the doctor. He gave me some pills. They weakened me and seemed to tear up my digestion. They would grip me and afterwards it seemed I was more constipated than before.

I heard of Black-Draught and decided to try it. I found it just what I needed. It was an easy laxative, and not bad to swallow. My digestion soon improved. I got well of the sour stomach, my bowels soon seemed normal, no more griping, and I would take a dose now and then, and was in good shape.

I cannot say too much for Black-Draught for it is the finest laxative one can use."

Thedford's Black-Draught has for many years been found of great value in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Easy to take, gentle and reliable in its action, leaving no bad after-effects. It has won the praise of thousands of people who have used it. NC-135 condemned by commissions on lunacy. Only a very few would obtain responsible positions even with private employers. There is not another family in Europe, probably having as many members as are included in this royal tribe, which would be compelled to own as many incompetents.

Royalty has assumed to follow rules on morality applicable only to itself, and has laid claim to, and has been allowed to enjoy, privilege upheld only by superstition or fear, or by the mixture of the two.

Alfonso is too good a democrat to be a king. He might even employ the plural pronoun "our" when referring to the army and navy of Spain and to the national resources of the country. Alfonso may live to be chosen president—to enjoy the supreme pleasure of holding an office to which he has been elevated by the free will of fellow citizens who believe in his capacity. No king on earth holds his warrant from so high a source.

SENATE PASSES AVIATION BILL

Washington, July 21.—The House bill appropriating $440,000,000 for the aviation service, was passed into law by the Senate without amendment or a record vote and with less than an hour's discussion. It now goes to the President.

The Senate's only dispute, with many members expressing a desire to pass the bill immediately, was over an amendment of Senator Hardwick, of Georgia, to strike out a clause authorizing drafting of the men for aerial service. The amendment was rejected 66 to 12 after Senators La Follette and Gronna made brief speeches opposing the draft.

Details of plans for expending the huge sum appropriated have been withheld, but it is known that it provides for about 22,000 airplanes and nearly 100,000 men. The President is expected to sign the bill Monday. During the first year officials hope to produce 3,500 machines, with a great increase the next year.

CLOSER TOUCH WITH REICHSSTAG, AIM OF KAISER

Copenhagen, July 22.—Emperor William's conference with his parliamentary leaders Friday evening is treated by the German newspapers as a landmark in the history of the Reichstag, the emperor, as usual, presiding over the session. The proceedings took the line of informal conversations, between the emperor and the members of the Reichstag, the emperor, as usual, presiding over the session. The emperor evidently aimed to impress his auditors with the great success of the submarine warfare, which, according to the Vossische Zeitung, he described as working "beyond all expectations and bringing nearer England's sure destruction."

Emperor William seems to have paid less attention to the question of reform. The Tagblatt says he avoided politics, while another account says Philip Scheidemann, the Socialist leader, tactfully refrained from pressing him concerning political conditions.

TO AILING WOMEN

A Little Sound Advice Will Help Many a Sufferer in Maysville

No woman should consider herself healthy and well if the kidneys are weak. Poisons that pass off when the kidneys are well, are retained in the body when the kidneys are disordered. If the kidneys and bladder become inflamed and swollen, worse troubles may quickly follow. This is often the cause of bearing-down pains, lameness, backache, etc. Uric poisoning is also frequent cause of headaches, dizzy spells, languor, nervousness and rheumatic pain.

When suffering so, try Doan's Kidney Pills, a remedy that has proved effective in thousands of such cases. Let a Maysville woman tell of her experience.

Mrs. J. C. Hays, 493 W. Second St., Maysville, says: "About six years ago, I suffered from a severe attack of kidney trouble. My back first became lame and ached dreadfully. Pains about through it clear up to my shoulder blades. My kidneys were irregular in action, too. A few boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at the Cheatech Drug Co., helped me a great deal. My kidneys became normal and the pains left my back. I have used Doan's Kidney Pills for a similar attack since and they have proven satisfactory."

Mrs. Hays is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the name that Mrs. Hays had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60c all drug stores. AMERICANS WIN HIGH WAR HONORS ON FRENCH FIELDS

Paris, July 22.—Americans in Paris are jubilant over the honors conferred upon their countrymen fighting for the Allies on the battlefield and in the air. The latest tributes to arouse the enthusiasm of the American colony has just been paid in the Court of Honor of the Invalides, where General Niox decorated several American soldiers.

Ernest Walburn, an American volunteer of Paterson, N. J., received the voted English military medal. He came to France with his brother, Andrew, in August, 1914. He fought in the Artois, at Verdun and on the Somme. He was attached as guide and interpreter to an English regiment in August, 1916, and was ordered to lead British troops on the old line French trenches near Comblès for an attack. While waiting in the darkness the troops came under heavy fire and a shell splinter lodged in Walburn's knee. The English officers advised him to go to a hospital at once, but the American refused. He remained with the British during the night march and fainted when the trenches were reached. Gangrene set in and his right leg had to be amputated. He had already received the Médaille Militaire and the Croix de Guerre.

Andrew Walburn holds the Croix de Guerre and has been mentioned in two citations. He is still a corporal in the trenches.

Other Americans who were decorated at Chalons sur Marne were Christopher Charles, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Guy Augustin, of San Francisco; Arthur Barry, of Boston, Mass., and Ivan Nock, of Baltimore.

The latter's citation quoted him as saying, "I will not leave the battlefield till I have killed my sixth Boche," when wounded, after killing his fifth. He kept his word.

James J. Hall, member of the Lafayette air squadron, erroneously reported killed, is now a patient in the American ambulance at Neuilly. He was struck by a bullet that pierced his shoulder, but missed his lung by a fraction of an inch, while out-numbered in an air battle with seven Prussian aeroplanes. He gained the French lines before he became unconscious, when his aeroplane crashed to earth. The Pollux expected to find the occupant dead, but he had landed in a trench with the wings supporting him on either side. He is from Boston and enlisted in the early days of the war. The British army released him in October and he entered the aviation duty only a few weeks when he had his encounter with seven aeroplanes. He is improving rapidly and will be ready to fly again in a few weeks. Mr. Hall is known as an author, "Kitchen's Mob" being among his works.

"ACT AS MEN", ADMONITION OF CHAPLAINS TO U. S. SOLDIERS

American Training Camp in France.—The chaplains with the American troops began their Sabbath duties early today, and by 7 o'clock most of them were in automobiles which carried them from one encampment to another. They spoke briefly to the men, delivering no sermons in the customary sense of the word, but talking to and with the soldiers. The substance of their talks was an admonition to the men to remember that they were engaged in a man's game, not a child's, and to act accordingly.

More than one chaplain paid high compliment to the soldiers for their manly bearing and urged continuance of the attitude which has permitted the men to settle down in the community without the slightest friction and without the evils which sometimes occur in such circumstances.

The services today, which were the first since the arrival of the troops, were undemonstrative in the main. Soldiers of the Catholic faith not only attended the chaplains' talks, but in many instances went to small Catholic churches which dot this section.

It was a day of rest for the men, who were relieved of their drilling and long hikes. In the afternoon there was a baseball game. Thousands utilized the opportunity to write home and the officers who act as censors had anything but relaxation.

The main body of newspaper correspondents is expected to arrive tomorrow to join the representatives of the press associations who are already installed here. Their first duty will be to undergo vaccination for typhoid.

A large group of American officers left today for French and British military schools to undergo a lengthy course of training. When the course is completed, other officers will take their places, and later non-commissioned officers will have the same opportunity.

The General in command of the troops refused to relax on Sunday from his strenuous daily program and made another inspection trip.

HEAVY FIGHTING ON FRENCH AND RUSSIAN FRONTS

The French and Russian fronts continue the scenes of the greatest military activity.

In France in the region between Soissons and Rheims the French have again given an exhibition of their tenacious ability at defense, like that which held the German back from Verdun. In the east the Russian defense in Galicia apparently is crumbling, by reason of the disaffection of some of the troops and the vicious assaults the German and Austro-Hungarians, especially the Germans, are throwing against it.

Notwithstanding the heavy losses the Germans have thus far sustained in their attack along the Chemin des Dames they again Sunday made fruitless efforts to defeat General Petain's forces, delivering at various points attacks with large effectiveness among who were fresh reinforcements. From Epine-de-Chevigny to the south of Corbeny, nearly twelve inches, the artillery of the Crown Prince pounded the French positions mercilessly in the early morning, after which the leash was slipped from the infantry which attacked on several sectors, only to meet with a galling fire from the French rifles and machine guns. Often the opposing troops came into hand to hand encounters. Several times the Germans reached the Cafenates plateau, but each time were driven back, suffering enormous casualties. Only at one point on the California plateau, were they able to gain a foot and here the position is still in dispute in a stubborn battle for supremacy.

NUMBER OF GARDENS IN U. S. IS TRIPLED

Washington, July 22.—The garden-in campaign has resulted in the planting of more than three times the usual number of gardens in the United States, with the prospects that their products will reach $350,000,000, according to an estimate made tonight by Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the National Emergency Food Gardening Committee.

The commission, which has waged an active propaganda for more gardens, recently completed a canvass showing the increase in each section of the country. In the middle western states, according to these returns, the number is 295 per cent over last year.

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or impaired hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surface. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surface of the system.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, etc.

Adjustments Restore Health Quickly and Permanently

Nature is the Chiropractor's only aid—adjustments release the pressure from the nerves and make the way free for Nature to do her part in sending mental impulses through them to make and keep the body well.

At This Vacation Season

When so many people are going away from home, the matter of the safety of valuables is one of vital importance.

Neither your home nor your office is the proper place for a will, marriage certificates, deeds, mortgages, bonds, notes, stock certificates, life and fire insurance policies, jewelry, and many other essentially personal valuables. Put them into a safe deposit box in our new modern, fire and burglar proof vault.

The rental charges—less than one cent a day—for private boxes are reasonable, out of all proportion in fact, to the great amount of protection afforded and the peace of mind insured by the use of these facilities.
